Partners for Children’s Health

Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville, is part of one of the nation’s largest children’s health organizations.

Nemours physicians care for outpatients in the Clinic, as well as hospitalized patients at Wolfson Children’s Hospital.

Children’s subspecialties provided to Wolfson include: Anesthesiology, Endocrinology, Gastroenterology, Genetics, Hematology/Oncology, Hospital Medicine, Infectious Disease, Neurology, Ophthalmology, Orthopedics, Otolaryngology (ENT), Psychology and Psychiatry, Pulmonology/Allergy, Radiology, Surgery and Urology.

Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville, UF–Jacksonville and Mayo Clinic Florida provide physicians from 30 pediatric subspecialties to Wolfson Children’s Hospital.

Wolfson Children’s Hospital is the only full-service children’s hospital between Orlando and Atlanta.

Wolfson Children’s Hospital, along with Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville and University of Florida–Jacksonville, work together to keep children as healthy as possible, in and out of the hospital.

By the Numbers

330+ Physicians

Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville, UF–Jacksonville and Mayo Clinic Florida provide physicians from 30 pediatric subspecialties to Wolfson Children’s Hospital.

11,000 Hospitalizations

Wolfson Children’s Hospital is the only full-service children’s hospital between Orlando and Atlanta.

62,000 Children Served

Wolfson Children’s Hospital, along with Nemours Children’s Clinic, Jacksonville and University of Florida–Jacksonville, work together to keep children as healthy as possible, in and out of the hospital.